To Whom It May Concern:

It is my pleasure to strongly recommend Murray Bealby as an individual who uniquely stands out and has delivered an excellent product to a tight deadline.

I found Murray to be incredibly personable with an exceptional ability to quickly make a strong connection to both the task at hand and how to include me in the process. Murray intuitively drew out the essential ingredients for a website whilst enabling me to feel very much in control and involved. His patience and conscientious nature set the tone for a very creative working relationship which enabled us to reach a hugely satisfactory solution and I very much enjoyed the journey.

Murray is able to make one feel immediately at ease and his client-focused approach is exemplary. There was no such thing as a silly question and I felt that all creative possibilities were considered within clear parameters. Murray clearly loves his job and his enthusiasm and skill navigated us safely towards a result that both exceeded my needs and expectations and left a legacy of possibility for my business.

During our time together, Murray Bealby displayed great talents and If you need more information or specific examples, please do not hesitate to contact me. As a recommendation letter likely only provides a snapshot of his talents and achievements, I would be happy to further elaborate on my time working with him.

Sincerely,

Lisa Fairfield
